

saturday 22 november - friday 19 december 2008

rite of passage

an exhibition of new work in neyland town library created by the community working with a visual artist, filmmaker and musician to explore the history and legacy of neyland's links with ireland me and my town large scale paintings created by year 6 pupils from neyland community school working with visual artist pip lewis

crossing the water

a new work based on traditional tunes composed by helen adam performed by fiddlebox and the cleddau music makers

tales from the sea

a documentary film about the project made by sharron harris brunel festival association working in partnership with spacetocreate community arts invite you to the exhibition preview, musical performance and film premiere on friday 21 november from 7pm-9pm in neyland library light refreshments will be provided find out more about the project www.riteofpassage.org.uk

